I believe that we have already fought this fight once! I don't understand why we are right back there again. Obviously our elected officials have their own agenda that they are more concerned with than what the patrons want. This community is resoundingly AGAINST a cell phone tower in the City Limits. Why can't it go out in the country away from people?

RECEIVED
10/4/16
MAC

Donna Brown