

Fair Housing Proclamation
RESOLUTION 230-2017

WHEREAS, April 2017 marks the 49th anniversary of the passage of Title VIII of the Civil Rights Act of 1968, commonly known as the Federal Fair Housing Act; and

WHEREAS, the Idaho Human Rights Commission Act has prohibited discrimination in housing since 1969; and

WHEREAS, equal opportunity for all – regardless of race, color, religion, sex, disability, familial status or national origin – is a fundamental goal of our nation, state and City of New Meadows; and

WHEREAS, equal access to housing is an important component of this goal – as fundamental as the right to equal education and employment; and

WHEREAS, housing is a critical component of family and community health and stability; and

WHEREAS, housing choice impacts our children's access to education, our ability to seek and retain employment options, the cultural benefits we enjoy, the extent of our exposure to crime and drugs, and the quality of health care we receive in emergencies; and

WHEREAS, the laws of this nation and our state seek to ensure such equality of choice for all transactions involving housing; and

WHEREAS, ongoing education, outreach and monitoring are key to raising awareness of fair housing principals, practices, rights and responsibilities; and

WHEREAS, only through continued cooperation, commitment and support of all Idahoans can barriers to fair housing be removed;

NOW, THEREFORE, I, Anthony J Koberstein, Mayor of the City of New Meadows, do hereby proclaim April 2017 to be in the City of New Meadows, State of Idaho:

FAIR HOUSING MONTH
2017

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand at New Meadows City Hall in New Meadows on this 13th day of March in the year of our Lord two-thousand and seventeen.

Anthony J Koberstein
Mayor
